Beginning the Millennium One for the Record Book

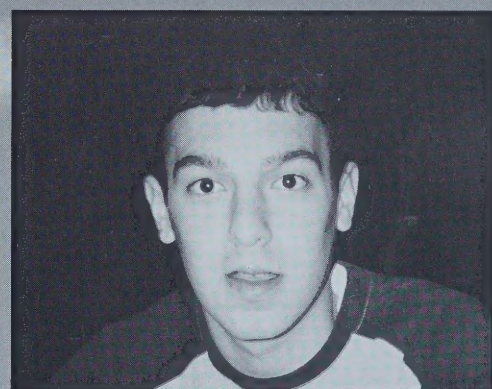

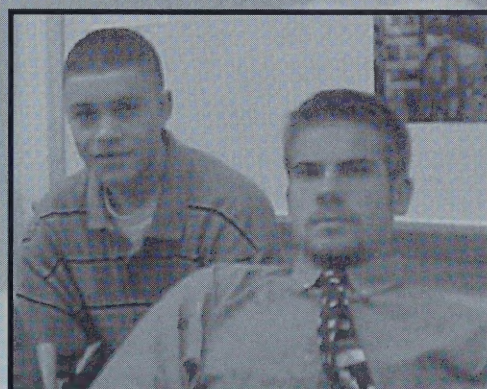

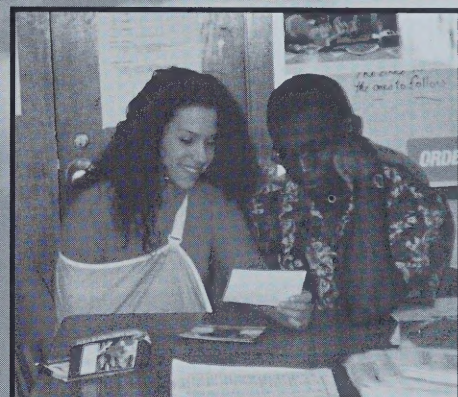

Coming up with a theme for the 2001 Magnet proved to be a difficult task. Back in September the yearbook committee got together numerous times and came up with ideas, but nothing seemed to fit. Here we are, the class after all the hype about the millennium- not an enviable position. It seemed the class of 2000 had stolen all the thunder. Then, suddenly, there it was, right before our eyes-One! The class of 2000 may have ended a millennium, but the class of 2001 was beginning one. The new millennium starts with us. We are One for the Record Book. After that it was easy to see our place in the grand scheme and everything seemed to fall in place.

So here's to you, Class of 2001, with pride and style as you lead us into the 3rd Millennium. This is your record book.

Class Advisors

Rebecca Stillman and Patricia Myer

Dear Class of 2001,

As graduation approaches, a Letter of Farewell could not be a more difficult task. Losing two excellent advisors like Mrs. DeCarolis and Mrs. Silberstein, who brought you through your first two years, is never easy. We are grateful for the door that opened and allowed us to "adopt" a fun and exciting group.

In our short years together we have watched you grow and mature to the wonderful young men and women you are today. We cannot say goodbye without mentioning the hundreds (300 plus) of friendships and memories that have made our job as class advisors easy to do and yet so fulfilling. No matter which road you choose as you begin your new life outside L.H.S. we hope you will look back on these memories with the same great feelings of warmth and satisfaction that we will always have.

Good luck in the future and may the years to come bring happiness to you all.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Stillman
Mrs. Myer

Class Officers

Class of 2000,

We, your senior class officers, consider it a privilege to have served you this past year. The past four years have been truly unforgettable. Years from now, when we look back on our time spent here, we will smile. We will remember how our class excelled both in and out of the classroom. We will recall both the spectacular victories and the agonizing defeats of our athletic teams. We will also look back on our accomplishments in the fields of art, theater, and music. Most importantly, we will remember each other. The friendships forged in these halls and classrooms will truly last a lifetime. Though we will all take different paths down the road of life, we will never forget each other. While distance and years may grow between us, we will always cherish the memories that we made here.

We wish you luck and happiness in all of your future endeavors, whether they be education, work, or military service.

God Bless,

President Antwain K. Hunter

Sincerely,

Vice President Jillian Keller

Adieu,

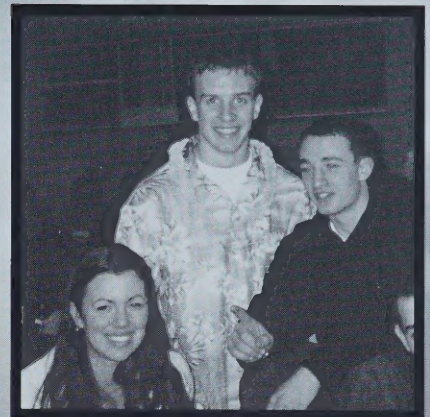

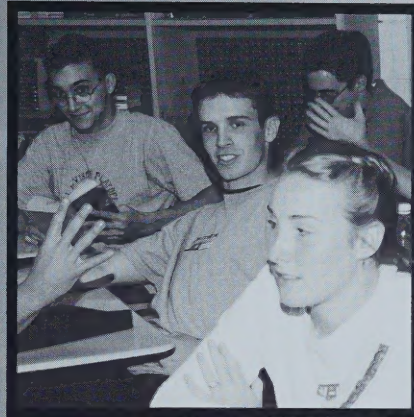

Treasurer Joseph E. Henrie

Au Revoir,

Secretary Lauren E. Simpson

Class

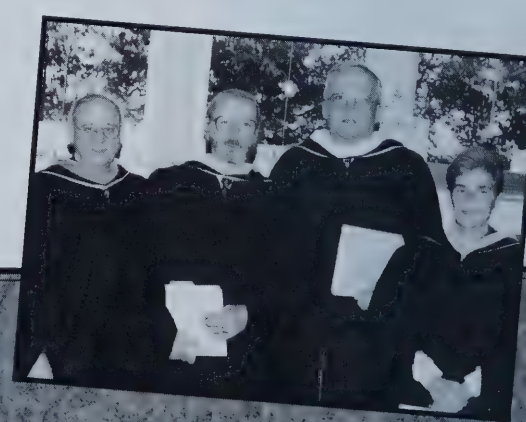

Freshman Year

The Class of 2001 entered Leominster High School as freshmen in August of 1997. Principal, Paul T. Fleming, and CTE Director, Roger Melanson, welcomed us and we were immediately turned loose into the A, B, C, D, E, F, and shop wings of LHS. It was intimidating at first, but we eventually found our way around and began our high school educations.

Mrs. Donna Silberstein and Mrs. Judith DeCarolus volunteered to be our class advisors and we elected our first class officers. President Brittany Zadek, Vice President Jack Reed, Secretary Lauren Simpson and Treasurer Joseph Henrie guided us through an eventful freshman year. The Class of 1998, our seniors, initiated us with the traditional Freshmen-Senior week and we seemed to blend easily into the fabric of LHS. We elected Erin D'Onfro and Joseph Henrie our homecoming couple. Many of us joined sports teams and clubs for the first time. Some of us took part in the interclass plays; ours was "Kiss Me Quick, I'm Double Parked". Our musical was "42nd Street". At the end of the year we bid farewell to long time Assistant Principal Edward Walsh and left to enjoy the carefree days of summer with a new sense of belonging and pride in our school.

Sophomore Year

August of 1998, we returned to LHS as sophomores. Dr. Joseph B. Rappa was newly appointed Superintendent of Schools in Leominster and our class elections gave us a new slate of class officers: President Adrian Gates, Vice President Keith Beauregard, Secretary Cayla Catalfano, and Treasurer Joseph Henrie. We elected Erin Cotton and Shaun Booth our homecoming couple. Our sophomore interclass play was "Candid" and the school musical was "How to Succeed in Business Without Really Trying". Leominster schools faced overcrowding and numerous building proposals were put forward. MCAS tests were the buzz in Massachusetts and the tragedy of Columbine was national news. The Class of 2001 became a bigger force on athletic teams and in the classrooms of LHS. Mid-year Mr. Roger Melanson bid the school system farewell after having served for 15 years as CTE Director and Assistant Principal Miss Pauline Ciccone retired at the years end. Also, Mrs. Silberstein, one of our class advisors, left Leominster High School for another position. We left our sophomore year more mature, more committed and half-way through our high school careers.

History

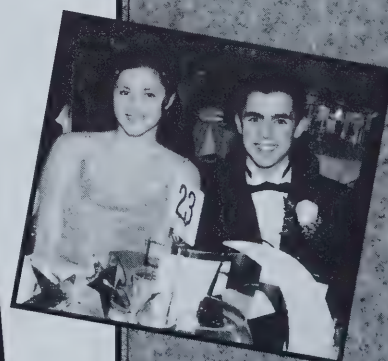

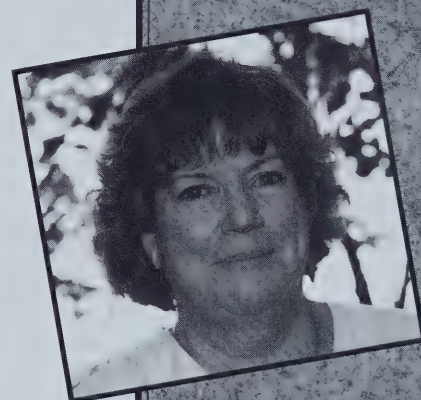

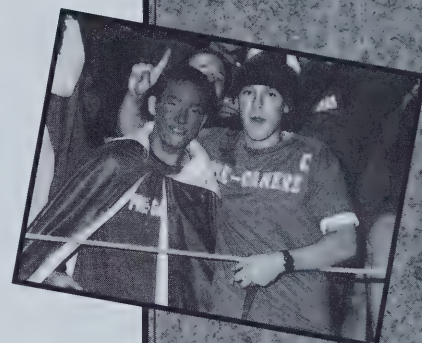

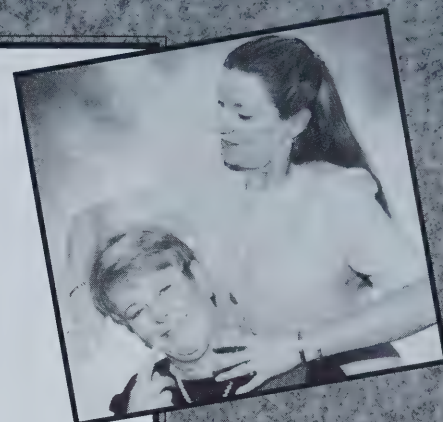

Junior Year

In August of 1999, we began our junior year at LHS. New class advisors, Mrs. Patricia Myer and Ms. Rebecca Stillman, volunteered to lead us to graduation. Our newly elected slate of class officers were President Miguel Guzman, Vice President Jillian Keller, Secretary Lauren Simpson and Treasurer Joseph Henrie. Our homecoming court members were Brianna Richardson and Alec Zadek. The junior interclass play was "These Wonderful Years" and the school musical was "Mame". Junior year brought us upperclassman status, more responsibilities and many new challenges including jobs, drivers licenses, Advanced Placement courses, PSAT's and college searches. We planned and attended our Junior Prom, "A Magical Night of Dreams", with the realization that our high school years were almost over. As the class of 2000 approached their graduation, we looked on, anticipating our own. Mr. Paul T. Fleming retired after 5 years at Leominster High School and long time Vice Principal Mr. Peter Michaels retired after 44 years of service to the Leominster School System. In June we left LHS looking forward to our final year.

Senior Year

All to soon, August of 2000, we began our senior year. New principal, Dr. William Hart, and new assistant principals, Mr. Dominic Ciccolini and Ms. Jane McGuire were appointed. Superintendent, Dr. Joseph B. Rappa, resigned and Assistant Superintendent, Marilyn Fraturelli, was appointed interim. We elected our class officers for life: President Antwain Hunter, Vice President Jillian Keller, Secretary Lauren Simpson, and Treasurer Joseph Henrie. Our homecoming court members were Stephanie Rosado and Sean Kirouac. Homecoming king and queen were Shaun Booth and Erin D'Onfro. We initiated the Freshmen Class of 2004, held our senior breakfast and rally, and took our class picture. Senior year brought many deadlines including college applications, senior pictures, and cap and gown measurements. It was both hectic and exciting at the same time. At mid-year, it began to hit us that senior year was quickly coming to a close. With college acceptances coming in and graduation day approaching, we feel nostalgic about our days at Leominster High School. We hope this brief look back touches on some of your memories of our 4 years at LHS.

Junior Prom

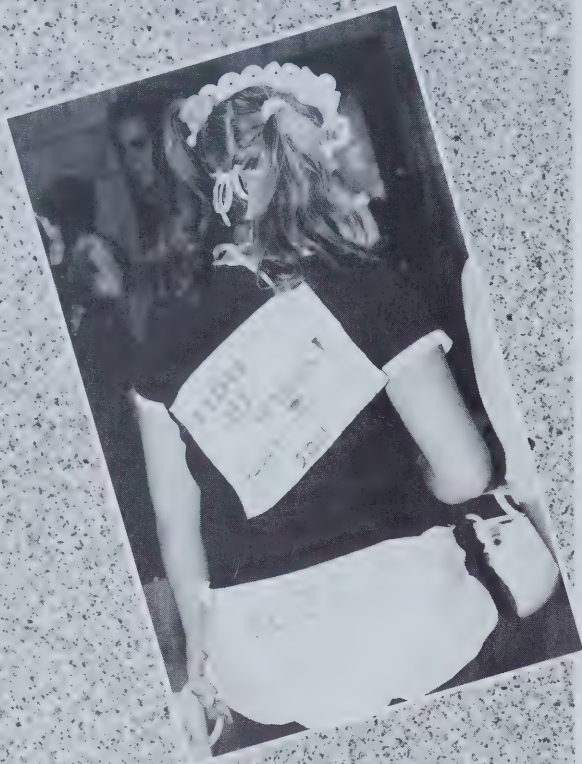

"A Magical Night of Dreams"

On March 31, 2000, the Junior class attended their Junior Prom at the Italian-American Cultural Club. The ballroom was decorated elegantly in blue and silver. The glass center pieces were filled with stars and a lit candle. Our theme was "A Magical Night of Dreams" and that is exactly what we had! In our tuxes and gowns, we danced the night away. Shoes and jackets came off and a good time was had by all.

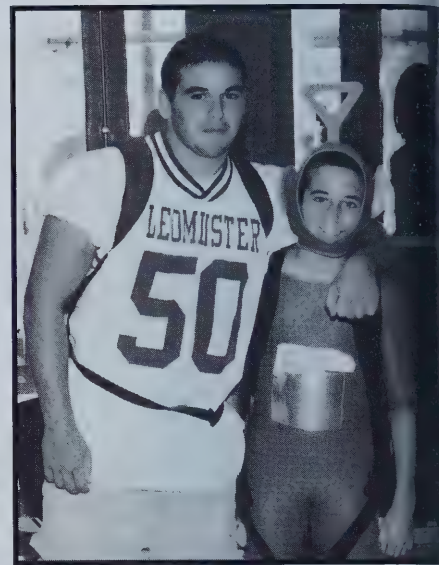

Freshman-Senior Week

During the week of September 18-22, the Class of 2001 initiated the Class of 2004 into Leominster High School. The week consisted of hat day, school pride day, and celebrity day. We started the week-long festivities with a "Meet Your Freshman" assembly and concluded with a pizza party. Costumes included a Teletubbie, a Pokemon, a genie, a hippie and a myriad of other characters. All the freshmen were great sports. Everyone had a blast, and many new friends were made.

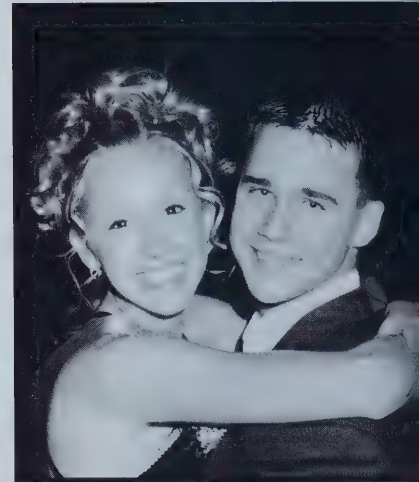

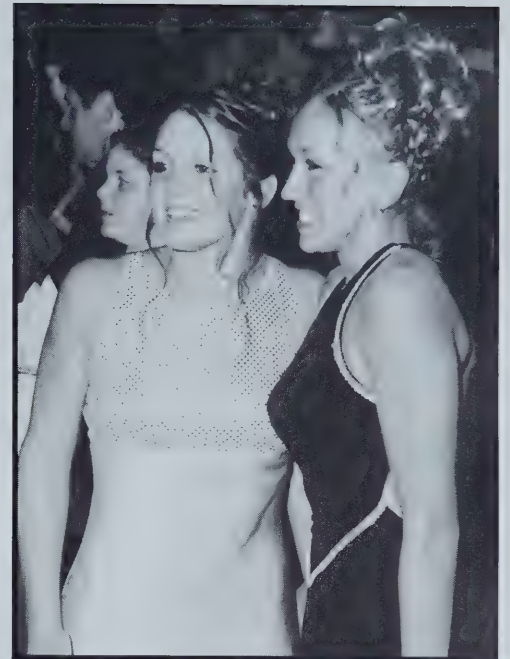

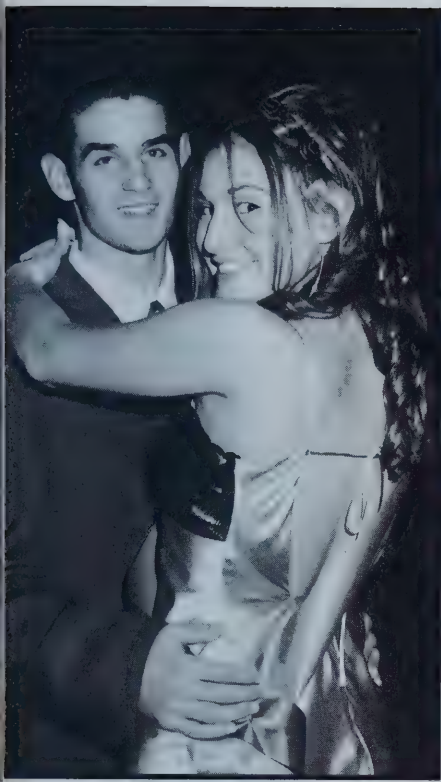

Homecoming

2000

On Friday, October 20, 2000, Leominster High School held Homecoming Festivities at Doyle Field. At halftime, Erin D'Onfro and Shaun Booth were crowned King and Queen. The court was made up of seniors Stephanie Rosado and Sean Kirouac, juniors Jackie Kelly and Brian LeBlanc, sophomores Erin Mello and Kevin L'Ecuyer, freshmen Lisa DelleChiaie and Ryan McNamara. After the game, the court was presented at a dance in the high school gym. A song was dedicated to the court members and memories were made.

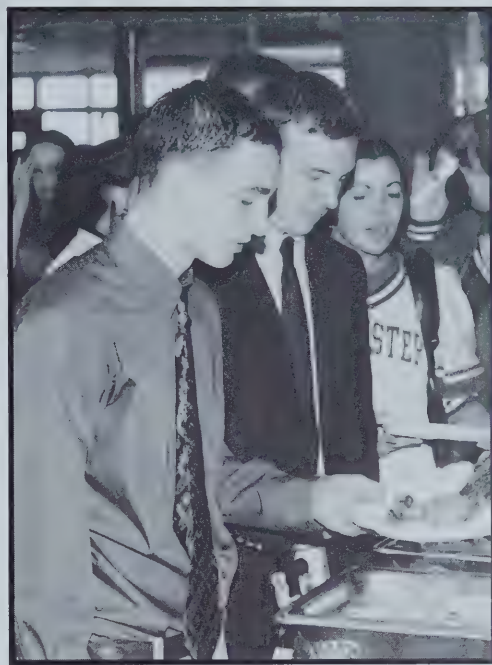

Senior Breakfast

2000

On Tuesday morning, November 21, 2000, our annual Senior Breakfast took place in the cafeteria. The seniors and faculty mingled while enjoying a delicious meal prepared by CTE. After breakfast and socializing, everyone gathered outside for the "2001" picture. Check it out on page 49! Then we headed back to class, anticipating that afternoon's Thanksgiving Rally.

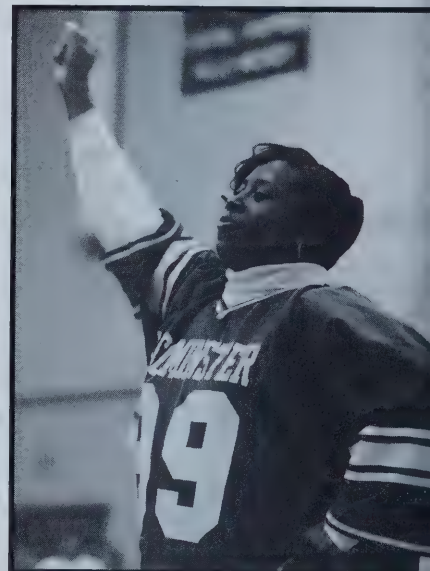

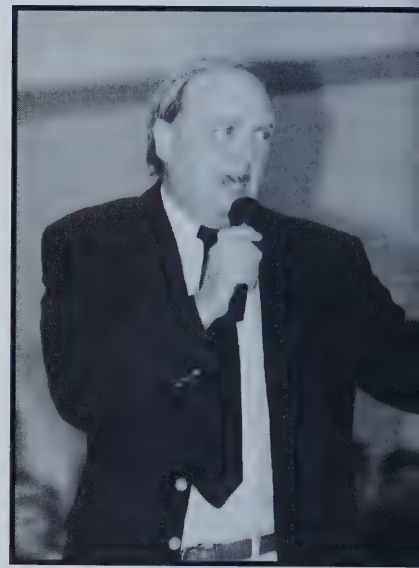

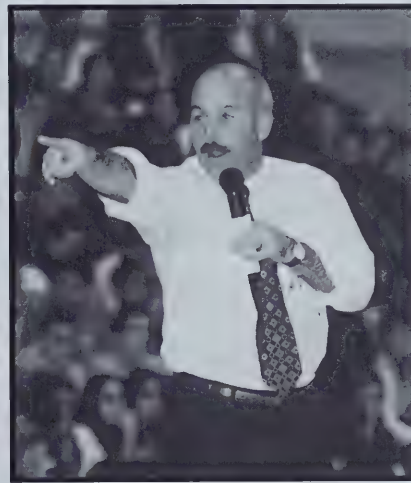

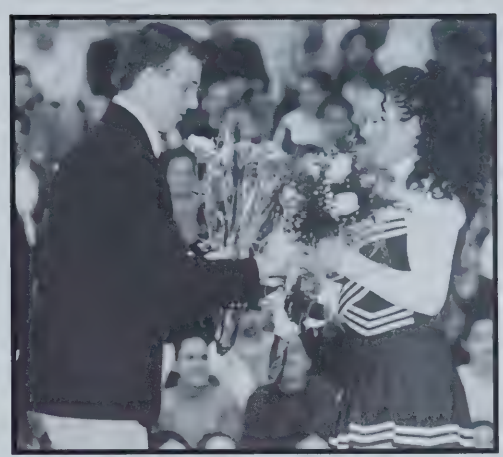

Thanksgiving Rally

On the Tuesday before Thanksgiving, the Class of 2001 staged a rally that rocked the gymnasium. School spirit was high and the fans were impressed by the presentations of the cheerleaders, band, senior moms, mock football players, and mock cheerleaders. The players were introduced and presented with flowers and balloons and entertained by the seniors who put on a pre-game skit. Although the outcome was already known, everyone enjoyed watching the Blue Devil destroy the Red Raider in high fashion. We all left looking forward to the big game.

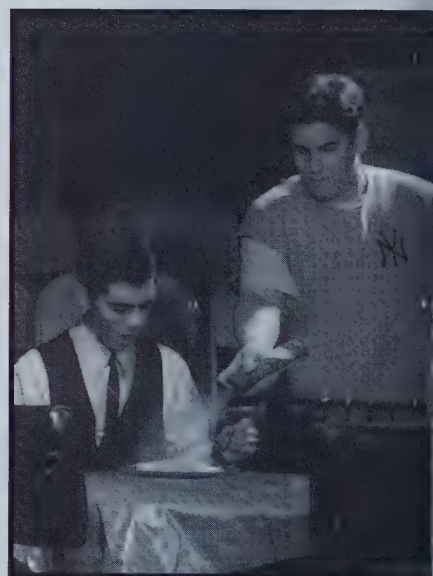

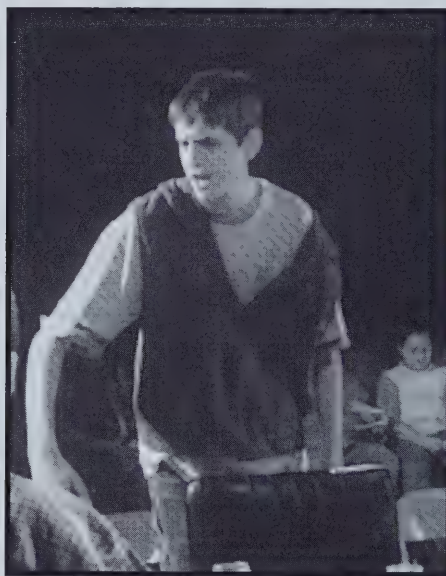

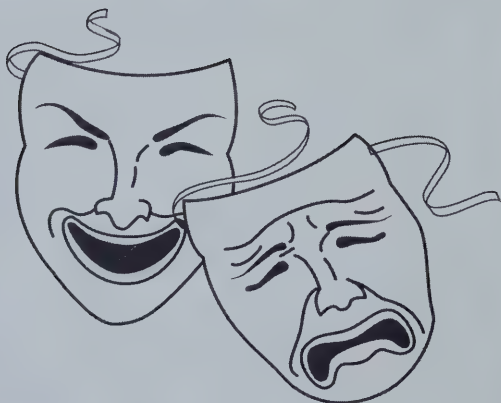

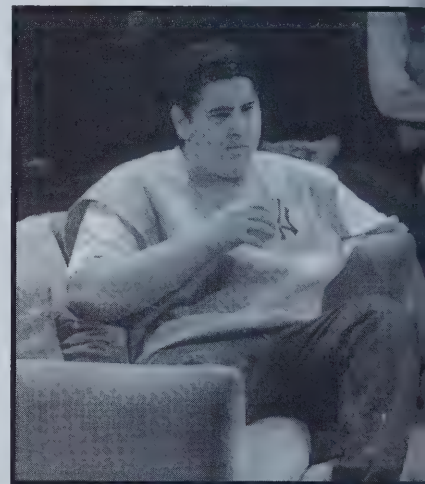

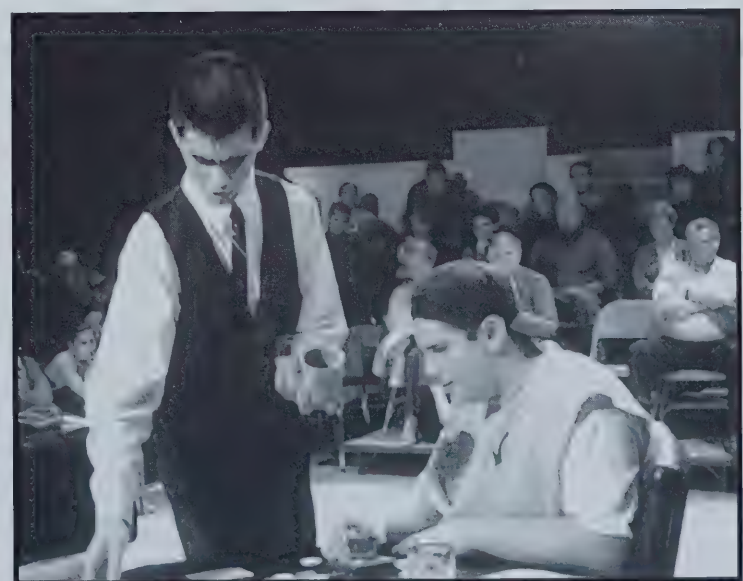

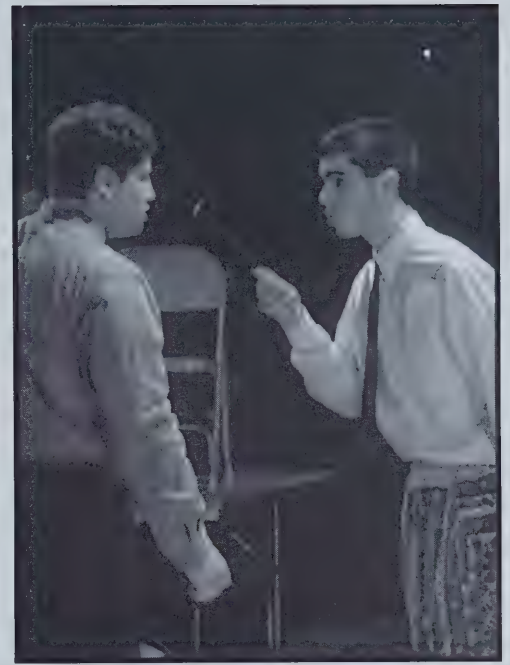

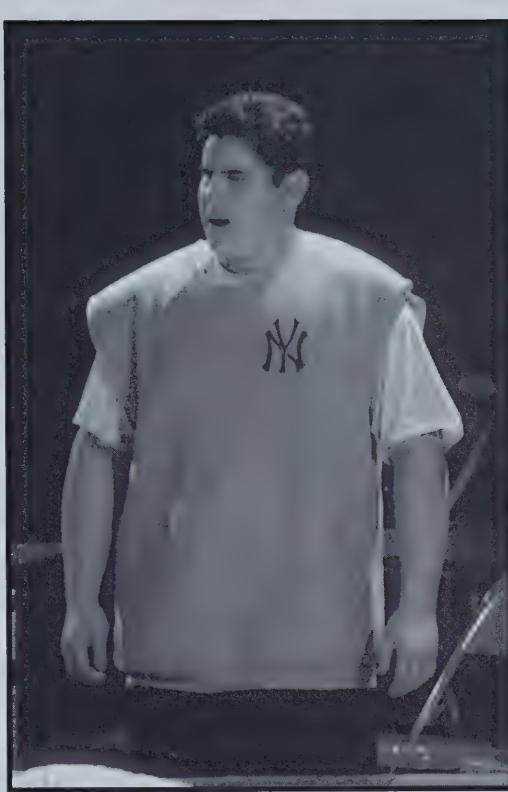

All School Play

The Odd Couple

On December 3, 4, 8, and 9, the Fine Arts Club presented the Neil Simon comedy, "The Odd Couple". Produced and directed by Mr. Barry Lew and aided by an excellent set and stage crew, the results were hilarious. This was one of the funniest plays ever produced by Leominster High School and will be remembered for years to come. The production starred Chris Landry as Felix Unger, and Ari Lew as Oscar Madison. Supporting cast members included Brian Bassett, Tim Smith, David Driscoll, Allison Laverdiere, and Kelly Loiselle. Leominster has had a long history of performing unforgettable shows and this was one for the record book.

The Ones to Follow

Dear Class of 2001,

Let me begin by thanking you for your gracious welcome as the new principal of Leominster High School. It is not easy changing principals in the last year of high school. You opened your heads and hearts accepting me with class and enthusiasm.

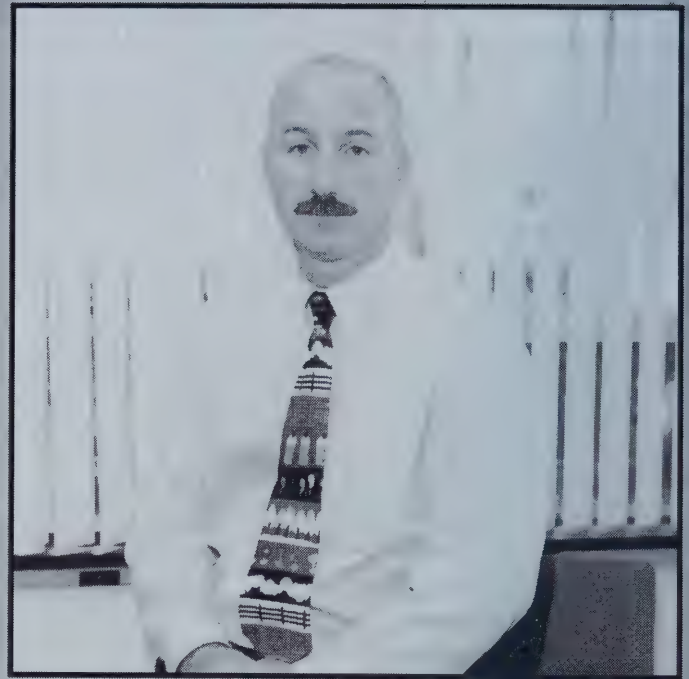

I want to encourage each of you to live life proactively. Quickly identify your passions and pursue those personal and professional goals tenaciously. Life is so rewarding when you live it with purpose and direction. Remember, you control your destiny when committed to a clear life vision.

Football

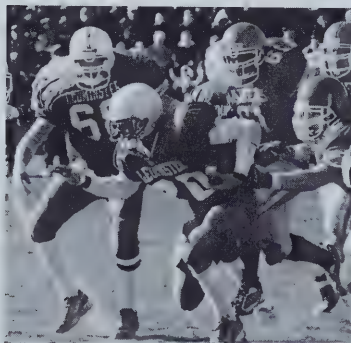

The 2000 Leominster High School Varsity Football Team had a successful season, finishing with an overall record of 7 and 4. Led by Coach John Dubzinski and Senior Captains Alex Algarin, Joe Henrie, Jim Malone, and Eddie Sanchez, members of the team showed dedication, stamina, and pride. The team gave their best effort on Thanksgiving morning against a very strong and heavily favored Fitchburg team. Despite a tough loss, they were a credit to Leominster High School's football tradition. With many talented underclassmen in the ranks, next season looks promising.

The 2000-2001 Boys' Varsity basketball team was lead by captains Keith Beauregard, Candido Tomasini, Sesugh Nomishan, and Terngu Nomishan. First year Coach Steve Dubzinski took over at the helm bringing enthusiasm and the trademark "foot stomp" to call the attention of his players. Leominster started strong with a convincing twenty point win over Coach Dubzinski's former team, the Gardner Wildcats. The team also defeated arch rival Fitchburg Red Raiders, and league foes Wachusett, Marlboro, and North Middlesex. Overall, the Blue Devils played an aggressive style of basketball as league all-star Brian Haschig led the team in scoring. With the tone being set by the class of 2001 and a promising group of underclassmen, the basketball future at LHS looks very bright.

The 2000-2001 Girls' Basketball team accomplished many feats this year despite being a young team. Led by Coach Young and captains Katy Kirouac, Kerry Conway, and Kristin Lake, the girls team had a fantastic year qualifying for districts, for the first time in over ten years. The girls went in as underdogs in the first three playoff games but delivered exciting upsets to land themselves in District finals against arch rival Fitchburg. The girls were ultimately defeated in a packed WPI auditorium, ending their season with a 14-9 record. A season highlight was Kerry Conway scoring her 1000th career point! Editors: Brittany Zadek, Tascha Zadek, Lauren Simpson, Armand Hunter, and Alissa Leger

To the Editors,

On behalf of Leominster High School and especially the senior class I want to thank you for your efforts in producing this yearbook. The idea that Yearbook- Independent Study was going to be a blow-off course faded quickly. After a beginning of the year lull, things got rolling and you worked hard at it every day until February vacation. We met our deadlines without a moment to spare and learned that it is really hard to cover it all. I think, for you, the year flew by even faster because it was your job to capture it for others. I hope you not only gave, but got something from your experience as editors. Alissa, Armand, Brittany, Lauren, and Tascha -You were quite a team! Good Job!

Thanks to the entire staff and to Alan Thibault of Creative Studio of Photography and John Neister and Eric Rodriguez of Jostens for their help and encouragement.

Sincerely,
Ms. Buss
